1999 Queen's Birthday Weekender

by Chief Arbiter Charles Zworestine

The annual Queen's Birthday Weekender was held this year at the Ashfield Catholic and Community Club, after last year's inaugural event in Wollongong was unable to be repeated. (This was due to lack of sponsorship and work overload of Theos Rippis, who did such an able job of organising the 1998 event). I would like to say that the tournament proceeded without a hitch – but I would be lying. On the third day (Monday) we were half a minute into the games when we were informed that the venue was double booked! Interested spectators were thus treated to the sight of 50 or so chess players at double speed packing up sets, and then carrying everything – tables, chairs, equipment and the kitchen sink – to another room in the club; it was amazing that the round only started 25 minutes late...

The event was eventually won jointly with 6 out of 7 by 2 visitors: Victorian Ernesto Puzon, and Victor Berezin (brother of Irina Berezina-Feldman). Their individual game ended in a hard fought draw, while Berezin defeated

Bolens in a nice game in the crucial final round (see game below). Puzon played an incredibly fast and decisive last round game to defeat Reitmans and claim joint first prize with Berezin.

Third prize was taken out by defending champion Gareth Charles on 5½, after Gareth did not lose a game but drew too many (including a Round 5 draw with Bolens). The Under 1600 prize was shared by Cary Cowling, Shaun Davies and Tomek Rej on 4½, the latter two also pooling the prize for top junior. Another junior, Arthur Huynh, performed well above his rating to get second in the Under 1450 with 3½, a section won outright by Mariusz Jarek on 4.
